25X1 [redacted]
25X1 7. [redacted] Talked to Gordon Neese, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, about his request some weeks ago (Neese has been in the hospital) for an Agency briefing of the Military Construction Subcommittee on the Soviet presence in the Indian Ocean. I told Neese I had taken this up with the Director who agreed to appear in executive session and would probably bring [redacted] with him. Neese does not have a specific date for the briefing at this time but expects it to be shortly after the current recess. He will give me a proposed date and a list of questions he would like answered in the briefing at an early date. 25X1

25X1 9. [redacted] Delivered copies of the package on the CIA investigation released by Senator Baker's staff today to: Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff; Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee; Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff; Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee; and Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, House Armed Services Committee.

25X1 10. [redacted] Talked to Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, about the possibilities of having the Proxmire/Stennis amendment to the Military Procurement reintroduced and passed by the Senate STAT [redacted] Braswell is very skeptical this can be accomplished without Committee hearings. He said the only possibility would be to attach it to some other bill amending the National Security Act in order to avoid the non-germane rule in the House.

I asked McConnell if he had set a time for the monthly current intelligence briefing of the Intelligence Operations Subcommittee and he said he had not. 25X1 He added he would not be able to set a time until Chairman McClellan returns after the current recess.

12. [redacted] Left for Ron Tammen, in the office of Senator William Proxmire, a copy of our package on the Intelligence Sources and Methods legislation along with a note that I would like to talk to him about this when he returns from his current vacation. 25X1

14. [redacted] Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, advised that Carl Duckett, DDS&T, had agreed to have breakfast with the Senate Staff Directors on 19 July 1974.
